Cost? $90 per session for Children's Voice or Choir

$145 per session for The Master's Chorale

Children's Voice Class

Grades 1-3

Learn the basics of healthy singing in a fun, encouraging environment. Students receive a well-rounded musical education, focusing on vocal production, music theory, diction, movement and expression. Spring session culminates with the Spring Concert.. Instructor: Kelsey Pentecost. New students welcome!

Grades 1 - 3: Sundays, 5:10 – 6:00pm

The Master's Chorale

Grades 7-12

This outstanding choir performs a wide variety of music, secular and sacred, in a number of exciting venues each year. Director: Dianne Harmel. Participation in TMC is a September–June commitment. New members may join in Fall 2011.

Grades 7–12: Sundays, 6:15 - 8:00pm

Children's Choir

Grades 4-6

FAVA is pleased to announce the formation of a new choral ensemble for students in grades 4 - 6. Each week students will learn musical skills, such as proper vocal production, sight-singing, diction, and expression, within the context of ensemble singing. Repertoire will include both sacred and secular music written specifically for the child's voice. Director: Laura Keverian Pitts.

New students welcome!

Grades 4 - 6: Sundays, 4:00 – 5:00pm

NEW! Summer Choir Festival— an exciting week-long festival for students completing grades 4-6 will take place June 20-24, 3:30-5:30pm. Students enrolled in our Spring session may participate at a discounted pre-registration rate!

Watch our website for details on the festival.
